

Dress Code for 2021/2022 EPSB Tournaments

Players' dress code for all EPSB events* this season will consist a minimum of:

- Formal shoes (no trainers/sneakers etc.)
- Formal trousers (no jeans/cargos etc.)
- Smart and appropriate collared shirt or polo shirt (long or short sleeved)

However, all players who reach the final of any EPSB national championship  at Finals Weekend (or elsewhere such as possibly the English Amateur Snooker Championship) will be required to wear:

- Formal shoes (no trainers/sneakers etc.)
- Formal trousers (no jeans/cargos etc.)
- Long sleeved collared shirt
- Waistcoat
- Bow tie or tie

*The English Under-14 Championship has its own dress code criteria – please see separate correspondence for information on this.

*/The English Women's Snooker Championship dress code consists of long-sleeved shirt or blouse, waistcoat, trousers or skirt and shoes (bow tie / tie is optional) - this includes the final.

/*The English Billiards Championship dress code consists of long-sleeved shirt, waistcoat, trousers and shoes. A bow tie / tie is optional for the opening day(s), but a bow tie / tie is required to be worn during the final day of the tournament in the main event.

PLEASE NOTE: Information on logo sponsorship patches can be read in this season's Standard Conditions of Entry

Should a player not meet the dress code criteria, they will not be permitted to play until they have the suitable attire on.

If a player/guardian has any issues or concerns regarding the above dress codes (including medical exemptions), please contact us on email through either info@epsb.co.uk, competitions@epsb.co.uk or players@epsb.co.uk

For any disputes regarding the dress codes at tournaments, these will be at the discretion of the relevant Tournament Director, whose decision will be final.
